HOW TO CLEANSE Your Deck

It's good practice to clear and cleanse your Tarot deck when you first receive it. You can also choose to cleanse it before each use.

Moon Bath: Place your deck under a full moon to charge and cleanse.

Salt/Smoke Cleanse: Placing your deck in a bowl of salt, or burning incense/cleansing herbs will help to reset the energy.

Align Your Energy: Meditate with your deck, carry it around, or even sleep with it under your pillow.

Sound Cleanse: Knock three times on your deck with your hand, or use a bell to cleanse the energy.

UNDERSTANDING the Cards

It can be difficult for some newcomers to interpret the symbolism in the cards when first learning Tarot. But, be sure to acquaint yourself with the artwork in the traditional Rider Waite Smith Tarot deck and see what you can pull from the imagery. Think of how each card makes you feel and create personal interpretations. Be mindful of any repeating patterns. Reference your findings against the training information included in this guide.

This exercise will help you identify symbolism and give you more confidence in working with other Tarot decks.

CONNECTING WITH Your Deck

Building a relationship with your deck can be a great way to sync your energies. Some ways that you can do this are:

- Keep the deck on you regularly and touch the cards when you feel drawn to them
- Keep a Tarot journal
- Study the imagery of the cards often
- Spend time trying new spreads and analyzing the results of the readings
- Examine each card and look for recurring motifs through the deck
- See if you have a favorite card. What draws you to it? Do you have a least favorite card? What repels you from it?
- Conduct a deck interview

HOW TO DO A Deck Interview

Many readers have their own version of a deck interview spread. This is the version I've used over the years.

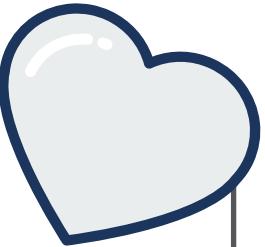

- 1 What work are we meant to do together?
- 2 What are your strengths?
- 3 What is your personality?
- 4 What are your limitations?
- 5 What do you expect of me?

COMMON Spreads

Starting with Tarot can be intimidating. These spreads are the most commonly used and easy for beginners. As you grow in your journey, seek out additional resources online to expand your knowledge and gain a deeper understanding.

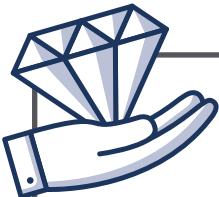

TRUE LOVE Spread

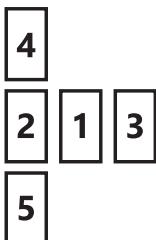

This spread is great for identifying what will happen in a romantic relationship.

- 1: The first card represents you. This is what you currently feel and represents your outlook.
- 2: This card represents your partner and their current emotions toward you.
- 3: This card is the connection card and presents the characteristics that bind you together.
- 4: This card shows the strength in your relationship and the qualities that make it flourish.
- 5: This card represents the weaknesses in your relationship and shows what to work on.
- 6: This final card is your true love card and shows what needs to be addressed.

SUCCESS Spread

Use this spread when seeking answers to an obstacle or challenge.

- 1: The first card is the major issue.
- 2: This card further explains your issues.
- 3: This card shows any hidden problems.
- 4: This card presents new ideas or a new perspective.
- 5: This final card is the overall solution.

THREE CARD Spread

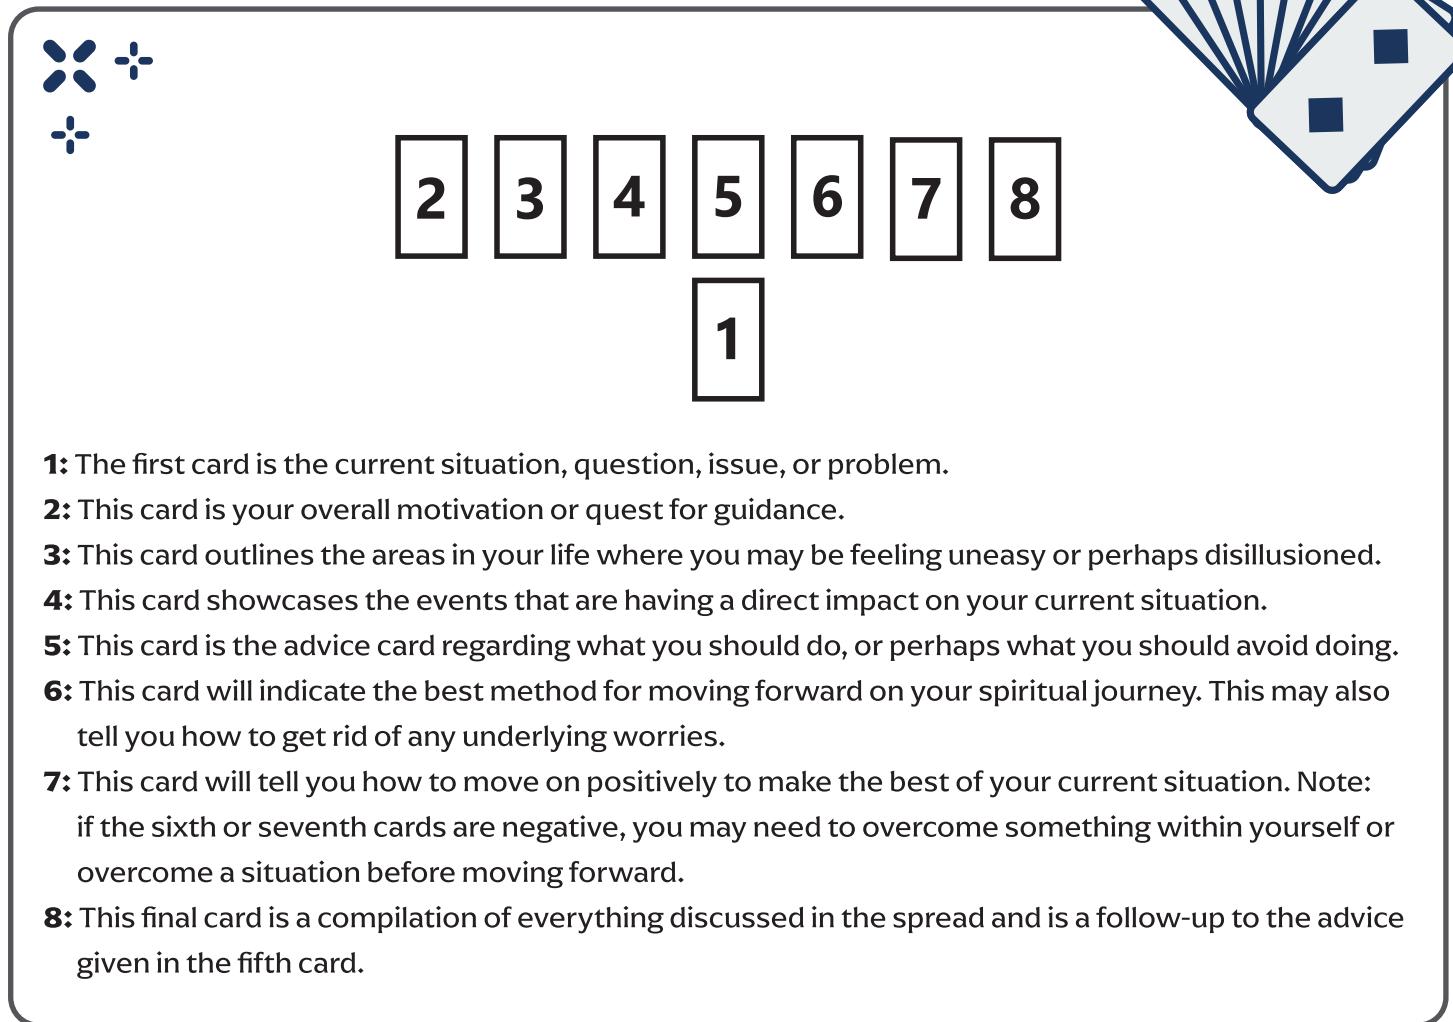

This spread is great for quick answers.

- 1: What to expect / What to do / Past
- 2: Obstacle / What not to do / Present
- 3: Outcome / Overall advice / Future

SPIRIT GUIDE Spread

The Spirit Guide spread is similar to the Success spread in that it's used when faced with obstacles or challenges. This spread is designed to give you a broader perspective and includes information to help you in your spiritual journey.

CELTIC CROSS Spread

The Celtic Cross is a multi-purpose situational spread that can be used for a variety of situations. This isn't an easy spread for beginners, but it's a very popular spread because of its versatility.

- 1: The first card is the current situation, question, issue, or problem.
- 2: This card is always read in an upright position. It shows the core obstacle that needs to be addressed and/or what's holding the reader back.
- 3: This card shows any subconscious influences or desires.
Note: If the second card is positive and this card is negative, the reader may be thinking they're not good enough for a positive outcome.
- 4: This card shows the tools at the disposal of the reader.
- 5: This card highlights past events leading up to the situation.
- 6: This card depicts where the reader is headed and details any obstacles.
- 7: This card presents the reader's attitude, actions, and thoughts.
- 8: This card gives an overview of the reader's energy. Are the people around the reader dragging them down? How are those surrounding the reader influencing them? Are the energies helpful?
- 9: This card symbolizes the reader's fears and brings light to the overall wants.
- 10: This final card presents the outcome. This card will have a strong connection with the sixth card in the spread. If this card is undesirable, then take note of all of the cards indicating attitude, energy, and so on. What can you do to change the outcome?

TAROT AND the Arcana

MAJOR ARCANA

The Major Arcana are the foundation of the deck. These cards unveil the soul's karmic purpose—the significant forces and lessons that influence and guide us through life. They unveil our deepest desires, needs, and joys.

Also known as the trump cards, the Major Arcana consists of twenty-two cards, numbered 0–21.

MINOR ARCANA

The Minor Arcana is full of lesser influences we see in our everyday lives, such as relationships, interactions with people, etc. In the Rider Waite Smith system, there are fifty-six total cards in the Minor Arcana, divided into four suits with fourteen cards each. Those suits are Wands, Swords, Cups, and Pentacles.
